BY THE GOVERNOR OF NORTH CAROLINA.

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, a number of public meetings have recently been held in various portions of the State, in some of which threats have been made of combined resistance to the execution of the laws of Congress, in regard to conscription and the collection of taxes, thereby endangering the public peace and tranquility as well as the common cause of independence, which we have so solemnly engaged to defend: And whereas, it is my sworn duty to see all the laws of the land faithfully executed, and quiet and order maintained within our borders,

Now, therefore, I, ZEBULON B. VANCE, Governor of the State of North Carolina, do issue this my Proclamation, commanding all such persons to renounce such evil intentions, and warning them to beware of the criminal and fatal consequences of carrying such threats into execution.

The inalienable and invaluable right of the people to assemble together and consult for the common good, together with its necessary concomitants, the freedom of speech and the press, are secured to you, my countrymen, by the most sacred compacts. They shall never find a disturber in me. Yet you will remember that the same instruments which guarantee these great rights, also limit you to the exercise of them, within the bounds of law, and impose upon me the solemn duty of seeing that these bounds be not transgressed.—The Constitution of the Confederate States, and all laws passed in pursuance thereof, are the supreme law of the land; resistance to them by combination is treason, and without combination, is a high crime against the laws of your country. Let no one be deceived. So long as these laws remain upon the statue book they shall be executed. Surely, my countrymen, you would not seek to cure the evils of one revolution by plunging the country into another. You will not knowingly, to the present desolating war with the common enemy, add horrors of internal strife and entire subversion of law and civil authority! You must not forget the enviable character which you have always maintained as a sober, conservative and law-abiding people; nor would I have you to forget the plain, easy and constitutional method of redressing your grievances. Meet and denounce any existing laws, if you think proper—you have that right—and instruct your representatives in Congress or the State Legislature, as the case may be, to repeal them. Your own chosen servants made those obnoxious laws—they can repeal them, if such are your instructions. If you regard them as unconstitutional, our Supreme Court sits ready to decide upon all cases properly brought before it. Its decisions are final in the State of North Carolina, and shall be executed while the power remains in your Executive to enforce any law made, but can be most beneficially effected in the way our farthers marked out by the ballot-box, and the other constitutionally appointed means. In times of great public sensibility like the present, any departure from this legal channel is revolutionary and dangerous, and tends to the division and destruction of our people.

It is my great desire, and, I hope, that of all good citizens, that our people should remain united, befall us what may. Should we triumph in the great struggle for independence, let no feelings of revenge, no bitterness, mar the rejoicing of that glorious day. Should we fall, and come short of that great object for which we have struggled so long and bled so freely, let not our strifes and domestic feuds add to the bitterness of defeat.

Attempt suddenly to change the existing order of things would only result in bloodshed and ruin. I therefore implore you, my countrymen, of all shades of political opinion, to abstain from assembling together for the purpose of denouncing each other, whether at home or in the army, and to avoid seeking any remedy for the evils of the times by other than legal means and through the properly constituted authorities. We are embarked in the holiest of all causes which can stir the hearts of patriots—the cause of liberty and independence. We are committed to it by every tie that can bind and honorable people. Multitudes of our bravest and best have already sealed it with their blood, whilst others, giving up all earthly possessions, are either languishing in dungeons or are homeless wandering through the land, and all have felt, in a greater or less degree, the iron hand of war. A great and glorious nation is struggling to be born and wondering kingdoms and distant empires are stilled with listening hope and admiration, watching this greatest of human events. Let them not, I pray you, be shocked with the spectacle of domestic strife and petty, malignant feuds. Let not our enemy be rejoiced to behold our strong arms and stronger devotion which have often made him tremble, turned against ourselves. Let us rather show that the God of Liberty is in His Holy Temple—the hearts of freemen—and bid all the petty bickering of earth keep silence before Him.

Instead of engaging in [illegible] unpatriotic strife and threatening to resist the laws of the land and endangering the peace of society, let us prepare diligently and with hopeful hearts for the hardships and sufferings of the coming winter.—Heaven has blessed us with abundant crops, but thousands of our poor are unable to purchase. Let us begin in time and use every effort to provide for them and secure them against suffering. And let us exert ourselves to the utmost to return to duty the many brave but misguided men who have left their country's flag in the hour of danger, and God will yet bless us and our children, and our children's children will thank us for not despairing of the Republic in its darkest hours of disaster, and still more for adhering to and preserving amid the fiery trials of war, conservative sentiments and the rights and civil liberties of the young Confederacy.

[L. S.] In witness thereof, ZEBULON B. VANCE, our Governor, Captain General and Commander-in-Chief, hath signed these presents and caused the Great Seal of the State to be affixed.

Done at the city of Raleigh, this 7th day of September, A. D., 1863, and in the year of American Independence the 88th.

Z. B. VANCE.

OFFICE C. S. ORD., WORKS,
[illegible] June [illegible] 1863.

This article is being manufactured largely at various points in the Confederacy but the scarcity of rags bids fair to interfere seriously with the manufacture.

In the manufacture of Catridge paper used in the fabrication of ammunition, raw cotton can be used if a certain proportion of hemp be mixed with it.

I am authorized by the Ordnance Department to purchase material for the purpose, and I take this method of appealing to the people to assist me in collecting old rags, bagging, waste cordage &c., or any of old hemp.

A good price will be paid for the above material varying from 10 to 25 cents per pound according to condition, locality &c.

I will also pay 40 cents per pound for old scap lead delivered at the works.

An Act to Amend an Act Entitled "Militia."

SECTION 1. Be it further enacted by the General Assembly of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That during the war the Governer shall have power to call out the militia for local and temporary service, all able-bodied men between the ages of eighteen and forty five years, or such portion thereof in the whole State or any part of the State as he may deem necessary for the public [illegible] men so called out from each regimental district, as is now established by law to be formed into companies of not less than sixty or more than one hundred privates, who shall select the company officers; whenever any of said districts shall furnish a smaller number than a company, or there shall be a residue after the formation of one or more companies, such smaller number may be attached to any adjoining district and the companies so formed may be organized into battallions and regiments, in which case the commissioned officers of companies shall elect the field officers; the same number of staff officers for each regiment as are provided for in the militia law shall be appointed, and the Governer shall commission all officers during the war, and no longer.

SEC. 2. Be it further enacted; That the officers and men shall be subjected to the rules and articles of war of the Confederate States, and shall receive the same pay, rations and allowances while in actual service as those of like grade in the Confederate States' service.

SEC. 3. Be it further enacted, That there shall be exempted from service under this act the following, to wit: The officers of the State, with their clerks and Secretaries; members and officers of the General Assembly; judges of the Confederate and State courts; the attorney general, solicitors of the several judical circuits, clerks of courts of record, marshals and sheriffs, jailors; registers, county trustees and keepers of the poor; one salt commissioner of each county, two blacksmiths who have established shops in each captian's district; one miller for each public mill; regular ministers of the gospel; the officers and necessary employees of the insane asylum, and institute for the deaf, dumb and blind, with their inmates and pupils; physicians who have been habitually engaged in the practice of their profession for four years [illegible]; the president, superintendent, treasurer, secretary, an agent for each depot, and a reasonable number of engineers, [illegible], conductors, and mechanics of each railroad company; one editor and the necessary number of compositors for each newspaper; the president professors and stewards of colleges; the principal and teachers of academies; the principal and a reasonable numbers of employees or manufacturers of cotton and woolen goods, iron, leather, shoes, and other articles manufactured of leather, who are working under contracts with the Confederate or State Government, or who have brought themselves within the terms of the act of Congress, by agreeing to take no more than seventy-five per cent. profit upon their manufactures; but in every case it shall be made to appear to the entire satisfaction to such officer as the Government may appoint, that such contract or agreement was bona fide, and not entered into or pretended merely to escape military duty; and that the Governor shall have power in special and extraordinary cases to exempt any other person.

SEC. 4, Be it further enacted, That in executing this act the Governor is empowered to employ such officers of the militia as may be necessary, and he may appoint a suitable number of drill officers, with the rank and pay of junior second lieutenants.

SEC. 5. Be it further enacted, That whenever the Governor shall deem it expedient to raise secretly in places where it cannot be done publicly under this act, companies for special service, he may commission officers for that purpose, with authority to raise such companies to consist of as many men and officers as he may determine, who when in actual serviee shall be entitled to the same pay and under the same rules as the force herein authorized except as to the appointment of officers, which shall be made by the Governor.

SEC. 6. Be it further enacted, That the Governor shall have power to appoint field officers to command any force raised under the 5th section that he may think proper and expedient.

SEC. 7. Be it further enacted, That all laws and clauses of laws coming in conflict with this act are hereby repealed, and this act shall be in force and take effect from and [illegible] the 10th day of February, 1863.]

The President and Gen. Bragg.

[Correspondence of the Macon Telegraph.]

MACON, GA., Oct. 9.

MR. CLISBY:—I read to-day a paragraph in a newspaper, very confidently asserting that Gen. Bragg and President Davis were brothers-in-law. From Richmond to the Mississippi I have heard this for the six months past. Having known President Davis since he was fifteen years of age, and his and General Bragg's wives since they were four days old, will you allow me through your columns to correct this statement. The error were immaterial, but that it serves some men a fruitful theme for the abuse of both President and General. Everybody knows that President Davis was born in Kentucky, and raised in Wilkinson county Mississippi, the county next above the line of Louisiana, upon the Mississippi river; and everybody knows that his first wife was the daughter of Gen. Zachary Taylor. This lady lived but a few months after her marriage, when her husband resigned his commission at the request of his elder brother, Joseph E. Davis, of Macon county, Mississippi, who at a very advanced age still lives, and is, as he ever was, one of the wisest and most honorable men I ever knew. His young brother was his idol. He knew he had abilities of the first order, and induced him to leave the army and seek another field which promised a wider scope for his talents, and a promise of greater usefulness to his country. How wisely did he judge?

In a few years he became eminent in Mississippi, and was attracted by the beauty, wit and talents of his present lady.—She was the daughter of Captain William Howell, son of a former Governor of New Jersey, and Margaret Kemp, the daughter of Colonel James Kemp, of Adams county, Mississippi. Colonel Kemp emigrated to Natchez, at an early day, from Alexandria, Virginia. He was an Irishman by birth—the land of Curran and Clehurn—and a nobler son than Colonel Kemp she never gave to the world. Colonel Kemp accumulated a large, very large fortune, and, though he has been in the grave near half a century, his to-day is but another name for chivalry and high honor. When all the better days of his life were spent, Capt. Howell was unfortunate in business, when his lady, who still survives him, nobly surrendered her patrimonial estate, which, being in the State of Louisiana, was her's, and not liable for the debts of her husband. These[illegible] paid, and then commenced the struggle of the parents to rear a large family, with very limited means. How well they succeeded, look at the Preeident's lady, one of the most accomplished and intellectual wamen of the age.

Mrs. Gen. Bragg is also a native of Adams County, Miss. Her father was Richard Gaillard Ellis, also a native of the same county, to which his parents emigrated before the revolution of '76, from South Carolina. His mother was a Gaillard from Charleston—a name prominent in the history of Carolina and the United States.—Mrs. Bragg's mother was a niece of the chivalrous Col. Towson, so distinguished in the war of 1812 and '15. Like Mrs. Davis, she is an accomplished and high bred woman; and like her, too, worthy of the noble man she calls husband. They are only sisters in being born in the same State and county. And the glorious old county of Adams may well hold them up to the Confederacy as her twin roses.—This is their only relationship.

Very respectfully,

W. H. SPARKS, of Louisiana.

THE PROGRAMME OF THE LINCOLNITES.—Several of the prominent Lincolnites have lately been making speeches in the Northern States in which elections are soon to take place. All of them declare that the Union cannot be restored as it was. The tone of their speeches show that they do not wish it to be restored even if it were possible. The programme they lay down is this: Whip the South; reduce the slave States to the position of territories; free the slaves; sequestrate the property to pay the war debt of the North; deny those residing in the South all the elective privileges heretofore enjoyed by them; in short to reduce the Confederacy to a complete state of vassalege, making her a tithe payer and burthen bearer to her Northern oppressors.

This now is the doctrine of the entire war party of the North. They are fighting for no purpose in the world but to conquer and subjugate us, and then appropriate our property to their villainous soldiery—reducing the white man to the level of the negro. Such is the fate which awaits our people if ever Lincoln succeeds in placing his yoke on their necks.—Augusta Chronicle and Sentinel.

Political.

Dr. J. G Ramsay, of Rowan, addressed the people of this county in the Court House on the 13th, at which we were prevented from being present, but learn that he announced himself a candidate for Congress in opposition to the Hon. Wm. Lander.

Dr. Ramsay declared himself opposed to all the prominent measures of the Administration and of Congress, which were intended for the vigorous prosecution of the war, taking the positions and following in the same course of argument with the Raleigh Standard. While he opposed all those prominent measures he suggested nothing in their stead, and seemed content to occupy the position of a negative. Hon. Wm. Lander being absent, Gen. J. A. Young replied to Dr. R., we learn, as it was reasonable to expect, to the entire satisfaction of the friends of Mr. Lander, and of all who felt it their duty to sustain the administration in its herculian and successful efforts to drive back the hosts of the invading foe, and that he also showed up the course of Dr. Ramsay as a member of the present Legislature, to be identical with that of the Raleigh Standard, and in opposition to the vigorous policy of Gov. Vance in his efforts to prepare our State for defence against invasion.

Book Notices.

"The Southern Women of the Second American Revolution;" our "Naval Victories and Exploits of Confederate War Steamers," &c. This is a book of over 120 pages, full of interresting acounts of Southern women, and other matter indicated by its title, complied by Prof. H. W. R. Jackson, and dedicated to "Woman." We have only had time to glance at its contents, but have seen much to commend in it.—Atlanta Intelligencer,

Criticism, in this instance, is disarmed. The book before us is dedicated to Woman—that dear "gift" last at the Cross and first at the Tomb, foremost in and inspirer of every good work; and the noble hearted compiler announces that twenty-five cents from the proceeds of each copy sold, shall be donated to establish and support, in this vicinity, a School for the Orphans of soldiers. This of itself should secure a large sale for the book.—Baptist Banner,

We have not had time for a careful examination of the work, but as it contains in a form for preservation much interesting matter ocnnected with our revolutionary struggle, we do not hesitate to recommend it to the public, especially as the author appropriates twenty-five cents from the sale of each book towards the maintainance of a soldier's Orphan School.—Savannah News.

Mr. Jackson has already transferred $600 from the proceeds of sales for the meritorious and benevolent object he has espoused. He is zealously engaged in his labors, and is now canvassing this city.

He may be addressed at Atlanta, Ga.—Charleston Courier, Oct. 10.

We are indebted to Mr. Jackson, who passed through Charlotte on Wednesday for a copy of the above book, which may be seen at this office. We commend the noble enterprise to the fair daughters of Mecklenburg and surrounding country.

* * *

The President left Atlanta for the seat of war on Friday last. He doubtless reached Bragg's headquarters that day. The Constitutionalist tells of his escape from a railroad collision, as follows:

We learn that several of the cars containing soldiers, passing up the Georga Railroad, on Thursday became detached from the balance of the train, and stopped on the track. The special train, containing President Davis and his suite was behind, and approached very near before the engineer was able to stop the train, and thus avoid a collision.

OUR FUTURE FOES.—A Washington correspondent of the New York Times says:

"It is the opinion of eminent military men here (in Washington) that colored regiments will form the basis of our future armies, and that the government will have to rely mainly on colored troops to finish up the rebellion."

[COMMUNICATED.]

To the portion of the "Ladies of Rutherford," who penned the letter, in the Standard, in answer to ours, which appeared in the Bulletin, addressed to the "Soldiers of N. C."

We feel it incumbent upon us to reply, though [illegible] letter, in which you accuse one of our noblest and most honorable citizens, of dictating and writing the one which appeared recently in the Bulletin, addressed to the "Soldiers of North Carolina." Really we are truly mortified and shocked, that Ladies, should so descend from their position, and thus unjustly accuse an innocent one, and deign to use such language as this letter is couched in. Surely it is not for the fair, the pure, the gentler sex, to pollute their lips with such terms as falsehood and even plainer, coaser words—far less to accuse thus openly, a gentleman of Mr Bryan's honor and truthfulness of making such "false" statements, as you pretend were made, with regard to the "Peace Meeting," which disgraced our community. We should take no notice of this letter, but for the grave accusations towards one entirely innocent. We do assure you most sincerely, upon our honor, as ladies, that Mr. Bryan is not the author of the letter in question, neither was he cognizant of it, and we are not aware whether he has ever read it, as he was absent about the time of its publication, we learn, and has but recently returned. Every one in the community, knows perfectly well, that there is nothing at all concealed or hidden, about Mr B., (although we cannot say as much, for some others here) but that he openly avows his sentiments and principles, whenever the occasion requires it—and would certainly not fear, to give to the world, his version of a public meeting, if he desired, without having recourse to the Ladies' to screen him. It is his boldness and candor, which makes him the object upon which this patriotic? "Peace party" delight to vent their spleen. But we shall not permit him to bear our sins. Be assured, once for all, that Mr. Bryan is quite exhonerated from your unladylike imputations, and be assured also, that not a line of the aforesaid letter, was either dictated or written by any gentleman, but solely, by the ladies, who are competent, we trust to write our own letters, unaided by any one; and the sentiments of indignation expressed by us, were universal throughout the Village, amongst the ladies, with the exception perhaps, of two or three, from whom this chaste epistle, in the Standard, doubtless eminates. Yet we do not say, that all were connected with the above letter, but, it was because they were not spoken to on the subject, as very many expressed the same sentiments, and all doubtless, approved the course of the "Committee." Furthermore, we can say with truth, that we received no details of the all important meeting, from Mr. Bryan, but obtained our accounts of the lamentable proceedings, from various other gentlemen, of well known integrity and truth who were present, all of whom gave the same version, yet were not aware of our intentions. It were strange indeed, if they were errors coming from such sources, as the statements we received.

These things were not "done in a corner." Why should these leaders and their friends be ashamed of their public acts?—They ought rather to be proud to have us publish them to the world, and especially, to the soldiers, if they felt they were doing their duty to their country, and were acting for the good of the cause. You say, "they wish to strike with the weapons of Mars, in one hand, while they grasp the Olive Branch in the other," If ours was the government to dictate terms of peace, this would surely be most proper and right—but, when our foe is the invading party, so unrelenting in its hatred towards us, so determined to accept no terms but utter submission from us, as they openly proclaim, does it not come with an ill grace from us, to offer the "Olive Branch?"—Would it not rather have the effect of bringing upon us their contempt, after the noble sacrifices we have made, to submit now tamely to their oppression? We should far more deserve and ensure their respect, if we fight on bravely to the bitter end, and are conquered.

An enemy will honor a brave foe, even if at their feet.

And is it not far better, to be united at home, and in every way aid and encourage our gallant soldiers in the field, in their noble struggle for Independence, and let them dictate the terms of peace, which they are willing to submit to; as a reward for their untold privations, sufferings and prowess, than to leave it to politicians at home, (many of whom have contributed, but little, either in money or blood to the cause) to compromise the soldiers honor, without his consent, and without permiting him to have a word in fixing the price of the sacrifices he has made.

No! we had better struggle on, with the hope of gaining everything, rather than submit now, and lose all. Ask the noble soldier, either officer or private, what he thinks of these "Peace Meetings," and he will unequivocally answer, that they are most shameful in their effects, and that he wishes no such efforts were made at home, for the adjustment of the difficulties. When our Independence is declared, which it surely will be, sooner or later, in God's own time, such demonstrations as the Ladies have protested against, will not fill a very honorable place in the hands of our Revolution.

We forbear to take any further notice of the communication in answer to ours.

YOUNG LADIES OF RUTHERFORDTON.

☞ The Standard will please copy.

We have received by the Steamship Flora, copies of the London Index of last month. We make the following extract from the paper of September 3d:—Wilmington Journal.

[From the London Index Sept. 3rd, 1863.]

AMERICA.

It has been our almost invariable rule to treat with silent contempt the mendacious assertions of the Federal Government and its hired advocates and spies in this country At the request of some friends we consent to make an exception in reference to the reported defection of North Carolina from the Confederate States. Suffice it to say that the genius of Yankeedom never forged a more unmitigated falsehood. It is pretended that Governor Vance, despairing of the succees of the South, is desirous of reunion. We have before us a letter from Governor Vance to the agent of North Carolina in this country, dated "Raleigh, July 10th, 1863," and from which we are permitted to make the following extracts:—

The resources of our State and the Confederacy have developed in such a degree that we have every assurance of being able to clothe our troops with our own goods, and our vast amount of captures has given us an abundance of arms.

The fall of Vicksburg, though creating some despondency, has not discouraged us.

On the whole our prospects are better than they were this time last year. Our people are adapting themselves to a state of war, our resources are developing wonderfully, our army is becoming veteran and invincible, and our crop prospects, with the harvest already in, almost exceed belief.

That the Raleigh Standard can publish the articles ascribed to it must convince the most sceptical that the Confederate Government must be strong and popular to permit the publication of what the North would call treasonable articles. If Mr. Lincoln granted his subjects equal liberty, his lease of office would not be worth many weeks purchase.

Mosby's Recent Exploit.

The following particulars of one of Mosby's recent exploits we have not before seen:

FAUQUIER CO., VA., Sept. 28, 1863.

We have just returned from another successful raid, in which we captured nine prisoners, with their arms and equipments, and twenty one horses and mules.

Major Mosby had twenty men with him. When we reached Grereton, on turnpike, between Warrenton and Centreville, and five miles from the latter place, we learned of a squad of Yankee cavalry, consisting of thirty men, being in the vicinity, on a horse stealing expedition. We immediately started after them, and only went half a mile before we fell in with twenty Yankees, whom we immediately charged and routed, they running in every direction.

We captured six prisoners and their horses and ran the others entirely away. Had it not been for a deep gulley, which stopped us in the charge, we would probably have captured all of them. Thus terminated the fourth fight on Manassas plains. Mosby says the Yankees cannot fight on Bull Run.

* * *

THE CONFEDERATE PLATFORM.—We reprint for general attention and reference the substantial portion of the plan and platform adopted with success in many places and known as the "Enterprise" movement, from the place which began it:

1st. Resolved, That in all our money transactions we will freely receive the Confederate money as if a legal tender; and discountenance all traffic in coin or bank bills.

2d. Resolved, That shut out as we are from commercial intercourse with the outer world, and having the army to support, the supply of most articles of prime necessity falls far short of the wants of our population, the prices, therefore, are wholy arbitrary and dependent upon the patriotism and liberality of our farmers, merchants and manufacturers, who have the control of all our supplies.

Let our exchanges keep this before the public with the Albemarle (Va.) plan—which is fully presented in the letter of Senator Wigfall, as published in the Courier.

* * *

HOG CHOLERA—SPEEDY AND EFFECTUAL CURE.—Tar and grease mixed in equal proportions is a certain antidote for this prevalent and fatal disease. The mode of treatment is as simple as the remedy itself. Catch the infected animal, turn it upon its back, gag it, and drench it with nearly a gill of the mixture. The effect is almost instantaneous. In a few hours the animal regains its appetite, and is seen busily engaged in quest of food.

* * *

PRICES.—Think of it and weep! Butter $4 per pound, bacon $3 per pound, lard $3 per pound, tough blue beef 75 cents to $1 per pound, meal $4.50 per bushel, flour $35 and $40 per hundred pounds, molasses $10 per gallon, sweet potatoes 8 to $12 per bushel, wood 40 to $50 per cord, house rent the highest possible turn of the screw, and everything else in proportion. What are housekeepers going to do this winter?

REPORTS OF THE PRESS ASSOCIATION.

Entered according to act of Congress in the year 1863, by J. S. THRASHER, in the Clerks office of the District Court of the Confederate States, for Northern District of Georgia.

FROM CHARLESTON.

[illegible]

But little firing to-day.

FROM VIRGINIA.

RICHMOND, Oct. 14.

A note from a prominent officer in Gen. Lee's army, to his wife in this city, briefly mentions the capture of seven hundred Yankee cavalry at Warrenton on Monday.

Our troops is represented in the finest spirits and eager for an engagement with Meade's forces.

FROM MOBILE.

MOBILE, Oct. 14.

The steamer Isabelle, in running the blockade Tuesday, got aground. The blockaders fired a number of shot at her, and was replied to by Fort Morgan. No injury. She succeeded in getting off and is now safe in the bay.

OFFICIAL DISPATCH.

RICHMOND, Oct. 14.

An official dispatch from Gen. Johnston, dated Meridian 13th, communicates a telegraph from Gen. Chalmers of the 12th, which says, we have torn up the Railroad in four places and attacked Colliersville yesterday morning.

Sherman with a part of Smith's brigade en route for Corinth, arrived as we did.—We drove the enemy into fortifications, and burned the camp with considerable stores; also thirty wagons—brought off twenty, took five stand of colors and one hundred and four prisoners. Our loss is about fifty killed and wounded. The enemy's loss is very heavy.

Prisoners report that Gen. Smith and Col, Anthony were killed.

The reinforcements coming from Germantown and Lafayette have returned.

FROM RICHMOND.

RICHMOND, Oct. 14.

The official correspondence from the State Department, relative to the dismissal of British Consuls, published in the Sentinel this morning, occupies nearly a page of that paper.

The first letter is dated the 8th inst., addressed by Mr. Benjamin to Mr. Slidell, informing him of the cause of the expulsion of the British Consular Agents in the Confederacy, in order that he may have power to correct any misrepresentation on the subject. Benjamin then proceeds with a lengthy review about the course of the British Government and that of the Confederacy relative to these officials, and refers to communications addressed to State and Confederate authorities by two out of three of the British Consular Agents remaining here. that they had received instructions from their Government to pursae a course in regard to persons of British origin resident within the Confederacy, which Benjamin says it is impossible to tolerate after an explanation. Of the provision of the conscription law and the statement of conscription made by foreigners at the instance of British Consuls, Benjamin alludes to the recent correspondence of Bullerton and Bunch asserting the existence of instructions from their Government counceling enlisted soldiers to judge for themselves the right to expell this unwarrantable assumption by foreign officials of their jurisdiction within our territory.—This offensive encroachment of the sovereignty of the Confederate States have been repressed by the President in ordering the immediate departure of all British Consular Agents from our country.

The next letter of Mr. Benjamin is to Bullerton. It begins with recapitulating the evidence of his assumption of jurisdiction by ordering promptly his departure from the Confederacy.

The next letter of Mr. Benjamin is to Mr. Mason, dated June 11th, which consists briefly in explanations of the causes of the dismission of Magee and Cridland.

SECOND DISPATCH.

RICHMOND, Oct. 15.

The Petersburg Register learns that Gen. Foster, from Newbern, has concentrated all his troops at Fortress Monroe. [illegible] on official business.

Benjamin's dispatches to Mason, relative to the dismissal of Magee and the appointment of Cridland by Lord Lyons as acting English consul at Mobile, within the direction of the President as communicated to Russell.

Russell in a letter to Mason asserts that Her Majesty is sole judge of the conduct of Magee, but he is willing to admit that the so-syled Confederate States is not bound to recognize authority derived from Lyons, but it is very desirable, as authorized by Her Majesty, should have the means of representing at Richmond and elsewhere in the Confederate States the interest of British subjects, who may be in [illegible] act of subaltern officers of States not recognized by Her Majesty, and would be in conformity with the amity professed by the so-styled Confederate States towards Her Majesty and British nation.

If arrangements could be made for correspondence between agents approved of by Her Majesty's Government, who reside in the Confederate States and the authorities of such States. Mason in reply says if it be his Lordship's pleasure to make this provision he doubts not it will receive a favorable consideration from the Government at Richmond.

BRITTON'S BLUE-BLACK WRITING FLUID!

MANUFACTURED BY
J. E. BRITTON
CHARLOTTE, N. C.

THE subscriber is manufacturing at Charlotte, [illegible] WRITING INK superior to any that has yet been offered to the Southern public.

This INK is of a Blue-Black color, and will not mould or thicken, nor will it corrode a steel pen.

Tests having been made with this Ink, both in the sun and in water, and they have proven such, that the subscriber feels confident in offering it to dealers as a superior article. The sun will not deface its color, but gives to it a brighter one, and by putting the manuscript written with it in water, it will give it a deeper blue-black color.

It will be found that it will not run, and parts written with it becoming wet will not be injured or defaced in the least.

It is purely a chemicle article, and those procuring this Ink will get an article that time will not deface, but which will give it, instead, a more permanent and lasting quality.

Manuscripts written thirteen years ago, (and which have been exposed to the sun and air since that time,) with Ink manufactured from this receipt, are as bright and as good to-day as when first written.

Dealers will be supplied on as liberal terms as possible.

This Ink can be found for retail at the Daily Bulletin office, where the subscriber will be pleased to wait upon patrons. Enquire for BRITTON'S BLUE-BLACK WRITING FLUID.

Wholesale orders are solicited, and all of them will be promptly filled

TO THE FARMERS OF THE 8th CONGRESSIONAL DIST., N. C.

OFFICE P. Q. M., 8TH DIST.,
Charlotte, N. C., Oct. 5, 1863.

FROM questions which are asked me almost daily, I deem it necessary to make the following notice:

The articles taxable under the "Tax in Kind" Law are—Wheat, Corn, Oats, Rye, Buckwheat, Irish Potatoes, Sweet Potatoes, Beans, Peas, Rice, Sugar, cured Hay and Fodder, Molasses made of Cane, (not of Sorghum,) Wool, Ground Peas, Cotton, Tobacco and Bacon.

Farmers are allowed to reserve 50 bushels Sweet Potatoes, 50 bush. Irish Potatoes, 50 bush. Wheat, or 100 bush. Corn, (but not both,) and 20 bush Beans and Peas together.

After taking out the above named reserve, farmers will be required to deliver to my agents the Tenth of all that remains of their this year's production. Should anything have been consumed before delivery of the Tithe, farmers will estimate the amount as nearly as possible and deliver accordingly.

We do not receive PORK, for the very good reason that we can not take care of it, but we require BACON, and ONLY 6 lbs. for every 100 lbs. of Pork slaughtered.

Depots established as points of delivery and receiving agents are as follows:

Monroe, Union county,	H. J. Wolfe,	Agent.
Charlotte, Mecklenburg Co.,	George Cross,	Agent.
Pineville, " "	J. W. Morrow,	"
Davidson College, " "	H A Hunter,	"

PROSPECTUS

THE undersigned will issue, in a few weeks, at Richmond, Va., a weekly journal, to be called "THE SOUTHERN PUNCH!"

It will be nearly a duplicate in size, form and general features of the world renowned London "Punch," so long an acknowledged power in the British Isles in the reformation of public abuses, and the enlightenment of the public mind, flashing as it did with the genius of Hood, of Jarold, and a host of wits, poets, and philosophic thinkers.

The proprietors of "THE SOUTHERN PUNCH" bring to the difficult task of successfully conducting such journal the advantage of capital, abundant mental resources, and pratical skill. The editor for many years past, has been connected, in a leading editroial capacity, with the largest daily papers of New Orleans and Mobile, while the gentlemen who will have charge of typographical and engraving departments are unsurpassed in that skill necessary for success.

Every number will be illustrated with numerous cuts, appropriate to the times (humorous and serious,) from the hands of one of the best engravers on the continent—an artist whose name is fimilar to the reading public of the South.

In fine, the undersigned are determined to make "THE SOUTHERN PUNCH" the spiciest most readable, and best illustrated literary journal in America. It shall distance competition.

TERMS—Subscription for single copies, $10 per annum. News dealers supplied at the rate of $15 per hudred copies. Address.

PROSPECTUS
RALEIGH STATE JOURNAL.

ON and after the 1st day of November next, the STATE JOURNAL will be published

DAILY, TRI-WEEKLY AND WEEKLY.

The DAILY STATE JOURNAL will contain all the news received up to the latest hour before mailing, and will consist of TWO EDITIONS DAILY. The MORNING EDITION will contain the news by the evening mail, and all TELEGRAPHIC NEWS up to 10 o'clock the previous night, and will be supplied to city subscribers and sent by the mails North and East; the EVENING EDITION will be printed at 3 o'clock, p. m., and will contain the additional news by Telegraph up to 2 o'clock, p. m., and will be sent to subscribers by the trains West and by the Fayetteville mail. Thus subscribers, no matter in what direction they may live, will have the news up to the departure of the mails.

Arrangements have been made to procure TELEGRAPH NEWS FROM ALL PARTS OF THE CONFEDEDACY, expressly for the State Journal. GENERAL NEWS BY MAIL will be promptly published. The MARKETS will be fully reported. RELIABLE CORRESPONDENTS will be secured, in the Army and elsewhere. The LEGISLATIVE PROCEEDINGS will be reported daily by competent Reporters. The STATE JOURNAL will be essentially a NEWSPAPER.

KOOPMANS BITTERS
PREPARED BY B. KOOPMAN.
CHARLOTTE, N. C

THESE unrivalled Bitters possess peculiar curative properties in all Affections of the Bowels. They will be found effectual in the cure of Dysentery, Diarrhœa, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach and all those painful and troublesome diseases arising from a derangement of the digestive organs and irregular action of the functions of the stomach and intestines. They will also be found a SAFE REMEDY FOR CHILLS AND FEVERS.

These Bitters are prepared from Roots brought from Germany, and for over a century have been found effectual in that country for the permanent cure of the diseases enumerated above. They contain no deleterious drug, but are compounded entirely from roots, and are perfectly safe at all times.

[illegible] a cure will naturally follow, and that is the best certificate of their superiority over every other remedy for those particular diseases.

They are manufactured by B. Koopman, Charlotte, N. C., and for sale by,
KOOPMAN & PHELPS.

Also, for sale at F. Scarr's and E. Nye Hutchison's [illegible] Stores [feb 25-1y
